

* ALL MINNESOTA-MADE: PATINA'S NEW SHOP P. 18

MIDWEST

Nov/Dec 2009

Home

35

GIFTS YOU'LL LOVE TO GIVE (OR GET)

STARRY NIGHT

Modern Holiday Lights

+PLUS

The Prettiest
House in Locust Hills

natural BEAUTY

New Winter Palettes p. 24

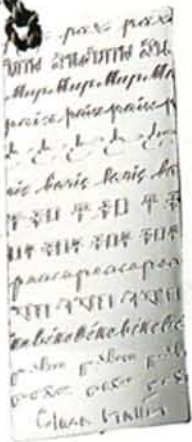

<< FOR THE BOOKWORM
Designed by artist Clara Halter, this silver-plated bookmark by Christofle features the word peace engraved in 15 languages, $58; Ampersand, Edina, 952-920-2118, ampersandshops.com.

FOR THE PREPSTER ^
Prep school meets hipster in this wool "Letter Pillow" by Jonathan Adler, $98; customize your own using the clever design tool at jonathanadler.com.

under $100

^ FOR THE AESTHETE
Handmade by Maryland artist David Sleightholm, the brushed "Wine Ribbon" transforms a bottle of vino into a work of art, $55; Grand Hand Gallery, St. Paul, 651-312-1122, thegrandhand.com.

<< FOR THE PARTY-GOER
A fresh interpretation of the champagne glass by a young New York designer, $60 per set of two, Walker Art Center Shop, Minneapolis, 612-375-7633, shop.walkerart.org.

FOR THE CERAMICS LOVER ^
Handmade by Joya New York with illustrations by artist Sarah Cihat, these porcelain candles are funky and serene, $96 for set of two; Larue's, Minneapolis, 612-822-7034, larues.com.

FOR THE HARD OF SEEING >>
Replace their drugstore readers with a pair of stylish, locally designed EyeBobs. "Chez Cat" style seen here, $65, but many styles and colors available; InVision, three locations, see invision-optical.com.

FOR THE COFFEE ADDICT >>
This stylish mug set by Rosenthal features Andy Warhol's stylized image of the Empire State Building, $100 per set; rosenthalusa-shop.com.

