Scent of a Woman

Mythical amulets paired with aphrodisiac fragrances in the new Shades of Dusk: Solid Perfume + Jewelry line from collaborators Vane and Joya are meant to capture the feeling of romance and ritual through the ages. Ambrosia, with notes of shredded coconut, Madagascar vanilla and clove bud oil, comes in the Roman Cameo pendant; Venom, containing orange blossom, lily of the valley and sweet musk, is featured within the Enchanted Spider; and Potion, featuring lavender, bergamot and liquid amber, is inside the Ancient Sphere, which is engraved with the title of a Paul Gauguin painting. Worn with nails done up in OPI's Absolutely Alice polish from the Disney Alice in Wonderland collection, these striking pendants make an edgy fashion statement we just love. joyastudio.com/shades >< —Lotus Abrams
