Natural perfume in amulets: Vane & Joya

04/28/10 21:04:32
Following a successful collaboration, the NY Mixology range of scented candles and ceiling tie plates, last year, Vane and Joya rejoin forces with Shades of Dusk: Solid Perfume • Jewelry.

Ambrosia comes in a clean Roman Cameo pendant and has the following notes:

top: shredded coconut, mandarin, lemon leaf
middle: madagascar vanilla, patchouli
bottom: clove bud oil, cinnamon, liquid amber

Potion is inside an Ancient Sphere that has a magnetic twist and features the engraved title of a Gauguin painting. Notes in Potion include:

top: lotus blossom, lavender, bergamot
middle: cedarwood, santal, yang ylang
bottom: liquid amber, madagascar vanilla

Finally, Venom is featured within an Enchanted Spider and contains:

top: orange blossom, honeysuckle
middle: jasmine, lily of the valley, honey bottom: velvet, patchouli, sweet musk accord

Chains are layered and modular with a distinctly downtown New York-abe. The solid perfumes evoke classic aphrodisia and are blended in Brooklyn with an all natural base of jojoba and carnauba oils.

Shades of Dusk just dropped at select Anthropologie stores, in addition to boutiques, apothecaries, resorts, and department stores worldwide. Each piece retails for $80.
